

fú dào lè = luck has arrived

Highly revered by Chinese throughout the world, fú or luck is one of the five most sought after values in Chinese culture. It is affixed upside down because the phrase "to turn upside down," dào, is a pun on the word "arrived," dào, signifying luck has arrived.

Display this image in your home or office for a continuous flow of luck and fortune.