Blessings of Hope and Compassion

This is the symbol for hope. In China, it is tradition to use symbols for love, wealth, longevity, and health to celebrate the New Lunar Year and to honor deities and ancestors. One deity in particular, Guan Yin, is the goddess of mercy. Much like our gentle Rabbit... she is the personification of kindness, compassion and hope.

Display this symbol of hope in your home or office to remind us that we are never truly alone and are loved.
